Welcome Again, Wooster!

A year ago Ohio State was glad to welcome Wooster again as a football opponent after an absence of 15 years from its schedule. And the welcome was sincere.

For Wooster, along with Ohio Wesleyan and several other members of the Ohio Conference, is the oldest foe in Ohio State's football history. More than that, Wooster has many things in common with Ohio State.

If anything, Ohio State today views Wooster with increased respect, for Wooster surprised the football world a year ago by holding Ohio State to a 7 to 7 tie. And as if to emphasize the fact, Wooster's baseball team last spring won from that of Ohio State.

Over a period of 35 years since Wooster and Ohio State first met in football, the two elevens have faced each other seven times. Of those seven previous games, Ohio State won three, Wooster two and the other two were ties.

Wooster, incidentally, ran up the third largest score ever tallied against an Ohio State team when it defeated Ohio State 64 to 0 in 1890. In 1909 Ohio State returned the compliment with interest, rolling up 74 points to none for Wooster. It was the third largest total ever amassed by an Ohio State football team.

The point was made a year ago that Wooster and Ohio Wesleyan, in a sense, in playing Ohio State, represent the entire Ohio Conference. In scheduling annually two games with Ohio Conference teams Ohio State pays tribute to the quality of football played in Ohio and seeks to continue its ancient friendships there.

STATE OF OHIO
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
COLUMBUS

On Ohio Field today we are to witness the second football contest of the season between two home talent teams.

Ohio State extends to the Presbyterians from the College of Wooster the same hearty, open-armed welcome she did to the Methodists from Ohio Wesleyan University a few weeks ago.

Let us hail the victor as our own and be proud of the loser--- both are Ohio schooled and Ohio trained.

Successful or unsuccessful in athletics, we will always be the winners in life's battles if we learn how to remain humble in victory and undaunted in defeat.

Changes in Football Rules for 1925

Most of the changes in the football rules this year again deal with minor details of phrasing. Further attempt has been made to explain clearly a number of points upon which coaches and officials have been in dispute.

THE KICKOFF

All kickoffs this year will be made from the kicking team's 40-yard line instead of the middle of the field, as was the case last fall. All artificial tees, including scraping up of earth, have been abolished on the kickoff, all place kicks and free kicks.

WINNER OF TOSS ALLOWED THIRD OPTION

The winner of the toss at the start of the game may elect to do one of three things: (1) to kick off, (2) to receive the kickoff, or (3) to choose the goal he wishes to defend. The loser has a choice of the other two remaining after the winner makes his election. Of course, if the winner selects either Number 1 or 2, the loser must choose the goal.

OFFSIDE PLAY

Offside play by defense no longer automatically gives first down to the offense. In offside play the penalty remains five yards, as heretofore, but the down and point to be gained remain the same. Now the offensive team may secure first down when the defense is offside, only when there is five yards or less to be gained on the play during which the defense was offside. Formerly it automatically became first down.

BLOCKED KICKS

When a blocked kick, which does not cross the line of scrimmage, is recovered by the kicking team, it counts as a down. If the blocking occurred on the fourth down the kicking team loses the ball, even though it recovers the ball. Formerly it became first down. It makes no difference by which side the kick was blocked. Of course, as heretofore, if the defensive team recovers the ball, it automatically becomes first down.

If the kick is partially blocked and thereafter crosses the scrimmage line, the ball is to be played exactly as if it had not been touched. Formerly touching of the ball by the defense made every player on both teams eligible to recover the ball. Now it has to be touched by the defense after crossing the line of scrimmage, before this is true. However, as in former years, if an attempted goal from the field touches a player of the kicking side, the goal, if made, shall not be allowed.

FLYING TACKLE NOW LEGAL

The flying tackle and tackling below the knees are again legal.

2. Unreasonable delay by a team, usually evidenced by calling signals several times before the ball is snapped.

3. Running into the kicker after he has kicked the ball.

4. Failure of substitute to report to referee when entering the game.

5. Unfair play not specifically covered in the rules.

6. Time called more than four times during a half at the request of the captain of a team.

5. Offensive player holding a defensive player.

6. Players of the side making a forward pass interfering with defensive players after the ball is passed.

7. Deliberately roughing the kicker after he has kicked the ball.

8. Piling up on players who are down.

9. Tackling a man after he has run out of bounds.

10. Offensive player tripping an opponent.

11. Sideline coaching.

12. Intentional throwing of forward pass to the ground.

2. Forward pass striking the ground.

3. Forward pass touched by two eligible players of the passing side.

4. Forward pass going out of bounds on the fly.

5. Recovery of blocked kick by kicking side, regardless of which side blocked it.

Loss of Ball

1. Ball kicked out of bound unless touched in the field of play.

2. Illegal use of hands or arms to prevent an opponent from securing loose ball.

3. Forward pass touched by ineligible player of the passer's side.

4. Interference by defensive side under a forward pass.

5. Failure to advance the ball 10 yards in four downs.

6. Kicking or kicking at a loose ball.

7. Player on the kicking side who is ahead of the ball when it is kicked and touches the ball before it touches an opponent.

Forfeiture of Game

Refusal to abide by referee's decision or to play within two minutes after being ordered to do so by the referee.

Important Note Regarding Time Out

Time is automatically taken out during a try for point after a touchdown, after a safety or a touchback, after fair catch has been made, after an incomplete forward pass, during enforcement of all penalties, when the ball goes out of bounds, or when for any reason play is suspended by the referee. Time shall not begin again, after any of the aforesaid, until the ball is actually passed back from center.

Next Thursday President Thompson will observe his seventieth birthday. On that day also he will retire, at his own request, as president of the University. Today's game consequently is the last he will see in his official capacity.

Ohio State, however, is as unwilling to bid him good-bye as he is to say good-bye. We yield to his desire to relinquish his administrative burdens, but as president emeritus we hope to see him often and for many years to come.

His hold on the affections of Ohio State men and women for more than a quarter of a century is abundant evidence of the permanent good he has wrought.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Words and Music by
W. A. Dougherty, Jr., '17

Fight that team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here.
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer.
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's beat that Wooster now.
Ohio, Ohio! Oh, Ohio! Wa-hoo! Wa-hoo!
for Ohio.

WOOSTER LOVE SONG

In College days, when all is gay,
And life but at the start,
There comes to each a love supreme,
Awak'ning in his heart;
And when we ask, "What is this love,
This first love, fond and true?"
From many hearts the answer rings,
"Tis dear old Wooster U."

Old Wooster and its memories,
Will come to us each day, . . .
And life with all its joys and cares,
Can ne'er drive these away . . .
The center 'round our first love,
Our dear old Wooster U.

Chorus

To Wooster U, . . . our Wooster U,
Out in the world can we prove true?
Ever rememb'ring, never forgetting,
Our love for you, dear Wooster U.

CARMEN OHIO

Words and Music by
Fred Cornell, ex-'06

(Hats off, standing)

O, come, let's sing Ohio's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill
With joy that death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will truly show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

These jolly days of priceless worth
By far the gladdest days on earth,
Soon will pass and we not know
How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name
Of fair repute and spotless fame;
So in college halls we'll grow
And love thee better—Ohio.

Alumni Chorus

Tho, age may dim our mem'ry's store,
We'll think of happy days of yore,
True to friend and frank to foe,
As sturdy sons of O-hi-o.
If on seas of care we roll,
'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren shoal.
Thots of thee bid darkness go,
Dear Alma Mater—O-hi-o.
(All in on last Ohio.)

THE BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

Words and Music by Frank Crummit

In old Ohio there's a team,
That's known thruout the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand,
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio Field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry.

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio! Smash thru to victory,
We cheer you as we go;
Our honor defend
Se we'll fight to the end
For Ohio.

How the "Big Ten" Grew

The Western Intercollegiate Conference, now popularly known as the "Big Ten," was organized on January 11, 1895, by presidents of seven middle western universities, meeting in Chicago to consider the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

Members of the Conference as its inception were: Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin.

Indiana and the State University of Iowa were admitted on December 1, 1899.

Ohio State University is the junior member of the "Big Ten," having been admitted to membership on April 6, 1921.

Michigan withdrew from the Conference on January 14, 1908, accepted an invitation to return on June 9, 1917, and resumed membership on November 20, 1917.

Precedent and resolutions rather than a written constitution are the agenda of control in the Western Intercollegiate Conference. Each member institution has a faculty representative entitled to one vote. No person who receives pay for services connected with athletics or the Department of Physical Education is eligible to sit as a Conference representative.

Annual meetings are held on Chicago in December. Called meetings are held as necessity arises. A majority vote of representatives passes any measure, but all legislation must go to the faculties of the member institutions for approval. Any measure rejected within 60 days by one or more faculties must be reconsidered at the next meeting of the Conference. The measure becomes operative, however, if again passed by a majority vote and any institution rejecting it a second time is subject to suspension from the Conference.

A Chance to Help

IF you did not enlist, or if you did not serve out your enlistment in the great army of Stadium Subscribers, it is not too late.

You can still sign up, or, if circumstances have delayed you in completing the payment of your Stadium pledge, there is no time like the present.

The wisdom of building the Stadium as it is instead of the much smaller plant originally planned is amply proved. There remains, however, a debt to meet. Have you done your share?

Each fall a number of lovers of football, in particular, and all intercollegiate contests, generally, voluntarily join the ranks of the army of subscribers.

Make checks payable to R. M. Royer, Treasurer.
